

CELEBRATING NUCLEAR SCIENCE WEEK

OCTOBER 21-25, 2024

LAUNCH A CAREER

IN THE NUCLEAR INDUSTRY

Nuclear Technology Supports

Environmental Management
Energy
Food & Agriculture
Manufacturing
Medicine
National Security
Research & Development
Space Exploration

Employability Skills Needed

Creative Thinking
Dependability
Flexibility
Motivation
Teamwork
Time Management

Nuclear Career Options

Administrative Chemists
Engineers
Information Technology Specialists
Maintenance Technicians
Production Operators
Radiological Control Inspectors
Plus More ...

Educational Levels

High School Diploma
Technical College Training/Certificate
University/College Degree
Military Training

Why Choose Nuclear?

Great Salary • Excellent Benefits • Growing Workforce • New Technologies
Advancement Opportunities • Make a Difference

PROGRAMS OFFERED AT SIX AREA EDUCATIONAL PARTNERS

- Aiken Technical College
- Augusta Technical College
- Augusta University
- Claflin University
- University of South Carolina Aiken
- University of South Carolina Salkehatchie

BUILDING A SKILLED WORKFORCE WITH SCHOLARSHIPS

Workforce Opportunities in Regional Careers (WORC) scholarships are available in varying amounts at six area educational institutions. Scholarships focus on programs that provide opportunities for local careers.

visit www.srscro.org for more information